Graduate Licensed Practical Nurse Licensure

A new graduate of an approved or recognized practical nursing program is eligible to apply for Graduate Licensed Practical Nurse (GLPN) licensure. This licensure allows a member to work as a GLPN under the supervision of a LPN, RN, or RPN until they have successfully completed the Canadian Practical Nurse Registration Examination (CPNRE).

GLPN licensure can be held until the time a member has been successful on their third and final attempt at the CPNRE or for approximately 9 months.

Scope of Practice

GLPNs are recognized as a Licensed Practical Nurse and may carry out the competencies of an entry-level practitioner. Please view the following Legislative Interpretation regarding practice as a graduate;

Online Profile

Once the Application for Licensure form and $150 fee is received, an online profile will be created and your login instructions and information will be emailed. This profile will enable you to check on the status of your application and determine which documents are outstanding. It is the applicants' responsibility to check the status and follow-up on any outstanding documents.

Verification of Registration/Licensure

The purpose of this form is to verify initial and current nursing registration/licensure.

- Current nursing registration/licensure in any province
- If you are a Canadian practical nurse new graduate and have successfully completed the CPNRE, request the regulator in your home jurisdiction to complete this form and send it the SALPN. Home jurisdiction is defined as the province where you completed your practical nursing education.
- These documents can be issued by the other regulator by mail or email.

- You may need to make additional copies of the Verification of Registration/Licensure form depending on how many boards you have current registration/licensure as a nurse.

Section 1

Complete this section to authorize the board(s) to provide the necessary registration/licensure to the SALPN. Send the completed form to the appropriate nursing board(s) to complete Section 2.

Section 2

The board(s) will complete Section 2 and mail or email the form directly to the SALPN office.

GLPN Licensure and Official Receipts

You will receive notification by email once your GLPN licensure has been issued. At that time, you will be given a username and password where you can login at <https://www.salpn.com> and print your GLPN receipt via the Member Profile and under the Receipts tab.

Conditions

Your GLPN license will be issued with the condition of successful completion of the “CPNRE” as well as “Must work under the direct supervision of a LPN, RN, or RPN”.

CPNRE Results

CPNRE results will be made available to the candidates three weeks after the mid-point of the writing window and again three weeks after the closing of the writing window. The results will be sent to you from the regulatory body in which you registered with for the CPNRE. Please contact your regulatory body to have them forward your results to the SALPN office. Results will be posted on your SALPN profile once results are received from the regulatory body and you will receive a notification via email.

Licensure Renewal

Once you have successfully passed the CPNRE your GLPN licensure will be converted to a Practicing license. Practicing LPNs are required to renew their license annually. The licensure renewal season opens each year on October 1st and closes on December 31st. Late fees are collected past the renewal deadline of December 1st.

Expect your licensure renewal information letter to arrive by email. If you do not receive it, contact the SALPN at 306-525-1436 or 1-888-257-2576. Remember to update your contact information with the SALPN when it changes.
