- Demonstrates knowledge, critical thinking and clinical judgement required to provide safe, competent, ethical care at an expert level,
- Demonstrates outstanding care using a holistic approach,
- Empowers the patient to be involved in their care through strong patient advocacy,
- Improves protection of the public with a commitment to lifelong learning and encourages others to do the same,
- Exemplary nursing knowledge,
- Commitment to patient safety within practice, and contribution to improvements in the work environment,
- Demonstrates leadership skills by acting as a role model, preceptor and/or mentor, and motivates others by his/her examples,
- Strong contributions to team culture,
- Demonstrates professionalism in both their professional and personal life,
- Reflects pride and positivity of the LPN profession.

The Awards & Recognition Committee as delegated by the SALPN Council, will determine the recipient of the Excellence in Practice Award. The committee will select only one (1) successful recipient from the eligible candidate submissions.

Nomination and Application Process

Nominations can be made by the general public and/or any member of the multidisciplinary health care team.

The Award and Recognition Committee's decision will be based solely on the information provided on the nomination form.

The Excellence in Practice Award is presented at the SALPN Awards Banquet during the Annual General Meeting and Education Conference. Applications for the Award must be submitted to the SALPN Office. Deadline for applications will be determined by the Awards and Recognition Committee annually.
