HONOURARY LIFE MEMBER

The Honourary Life Member Award is presented annually to non-Licensed Practical Nurses who have provided distinguished services to the practical nursing profession in Canada. Criteria to be considered in granting the Award include:

- Teaching and Education
- Mentorship
- Leadership
- Research
- Policy Development
- Management and Administration

An Honourary Life Member is entitled to the following privileges of membership:

- Honourary Life Member of the SALPN;
- to attend and participate in, but not vote at, all meetings of the SALPN;
- to be eligible for appointment to committees of the SALPN, but not to stand for or be elected or appointed to office;
- to receive any notices and newsletters from the SALPN.

The SALPN Council will determine the recipient of the Honourary Life Member Award.

The Honourary Life Membership Award is presented at the SALPN Awards Banquet during the Annual General Meeting and Education Conference. Applications for the Award must be submitted to the SALPN Office. Deadline for applications will be determined by the SALPN Council annually.

Nomination and Application Process

Nominations can be made by the general public and/or any member of the multidisciplinary health care team.

The SALPN Councils' decision will be based solely on the information provided on the nomination form.
