

T: Community Based Care

Major Competency Area: T
Community Based Care

Competency: T-1
Knowledge of Community Based Care

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

- T-1-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to apply critical thinking and critical inquiry throughout the nursing process in community based care or individuals, groups and communities:
- holistic health assessments
 - program/outcome planning
 - implementation of services
 - evaluation of outcomes and goals
- T-1-2 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to practice in accordance with professional Legislation, Regulation and standards for community based care.
- T-1-3 Demonstrate knowledge of community and primary health principles, nursing science, social science and humanities into community based care.
- T-1-4 Demonstrate knowledge of social determinants of health and how they impact individuals, groups and communities.
- T-1-5 Demonstrate knowledge of concepts of health promotion, protection, prevention and health maintenance/restoration in community based care.

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

- T-1-6 Demonstrate knowledge to provide community based care to meet health needs of diverse communities such as:
- client homes/lodges/facilities
 - community and public health centers
 - correctional facilities
 - hospices/parish environments
 - nursing outposts
 - primary health networks/physician and ambulatory clinics
 - schools/educational facilities
 - street clinics/youth centers/group homes
- T-1-7 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to provide health teaching and coaching associated with community based care.
- T-1-8 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to communicate, consult and collaborate with inter-professional team.

Major Competency Area: T
Community Health

Competency: T-2
Nursing Process and
Community Based Care

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-2-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to provide evidence informed client centered care for individuals, groups and communities in community based settings including:

- advocate for client
- assess and manage risk
- assess, identify and evaluate goals/outcomes
- maintain and restore health
- model client centered care
- model cultural competence
- prevent disease and injury
- promote health/rehabilitation/restoration
- provide palliation
- support client transitions across continuum of care

T-2-2 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to provide leadership at in community based settings including:

- assess and manage resources
- create and encourage healthy living environments and networks
- implement chronic disease management initiatives
- develop health teaching and coaching strategies
- implement strategic initiatives
- manage risk when working alone/travelling/home visits
- model flexibility and innovation
- perform assessments in various settings
- provide coordination and leadership
- provide leadership as manager/administrator

Competency: T-2
Nursing Process and Community Based Care

Page: 2

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-2-3 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to participate in evidence informed end of life care, integrating palliative principles and values in community based care including:

- holistic, compassionate, client centered care
- managing difficult discussions regarding palliation and end of life
- open dialogue regarding end of life
- spiritual and religious support
- symptom management and comfort measures

Major Competency Area: T
Community Health

Competency: T-3
Health Promotion

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

- T-3-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to implement and utilize tools and strategies to address health promotion for individuals, groups and communities including:
- health concerns of at risk groups
 - specific social determinant(s) of health
 - specific health concerns
- T-3-2 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to plan and participate in primary, secondary and tertiary disease prevention activities including:
- prevent onset
 - address risk factors
 - control and treat progression
 - rehabilitation/restoration
- T-3-3 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to incorporate health promotion into health teaching, coaching and care:
- strengthen skills of individuals to practice healthy behaviors
 - create healthy social and physical environments to support behaviors

Major Competency Area: T
Community Health

Competency: T-4
Client Services

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-4-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to assess safety of self and others by recognizing and managing obvious and potential safety concerns including:

- implement prevention strategies
- identify and remove safety hazards
- monitor and manage care delivery environment
- monitor and manage unsafe/aggressive behavior

T-4-2 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to participate in client and family case conferences.

T-4-3 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to assign, educate and supervise healthcare aide/unregulated provider and/or regulated provider in community based settings:

- implement standards for assignment of care
- ensure continuity of care
- provide mentorship, coaching and guidance
- evaluate and reassign as necessary

T-4-4 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to plan, facilitate access to healthcare services and other members of inter-professional team including:

- physician
- community pharmacist
- social service agencies
- home care services
- special care nurses (foot care, wound care, chronic disease, navigators)
- allied health professionals (physiotherapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy)

Competency: T-4

Client Services

Page: 2

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-4-5 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to identify and adapt services for at-risk individuals, groups and communities including, but not limited to:

- dependent
- disabled
- homeless
- isolated
- immigrants
- low socio-economic status
- transient and mobile

Major Competency Area: T
Community Based Care

Competency: T-5
Community Based Care
Teaching and Coaching

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-5-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to assess, plan, implement and evaluate evidence informed education and health teaching and coaching for individuals, groups and communities such as:

- apply community health principles and practices
- apply empowerment strategies (mutual goal setting, visioning, facilitation)
- facilitate and support group development
- engage community based resources/experts
- engage individuals and groups in consultative process
- guide individuals and groups in resolution of issues
- organize, advertise, facilitate education services
- recognize readiness of groups or community to participate
- utilize available resources to support action on health issues
- consult and collaborate with inter-professional team

Major Competency Area: T
Community Health

Competency: T-6
Community Wellness

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-6-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to apply critical thinking and critical inquiry throughout the nursing process in community wellness.

T-6-2 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to participate in public health population assessment and evaluation.

T-6-3 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to promote and deliver health wellness and disease prevention programs to facilitate healthy communities including:

- post-partum discharge programs
- child/youth health programs
- chronic disease management
- community wellness
- emergency preparedness
- injury prevention
- screening and disease prevention
 - communicable diseases
 - breast cancer
 - immunization management
 - implement immunization schedules
 - travel health protocols
 - vaccine administration
 - tuberculosis clinics

T-6-4 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to provide client centered care to individuals, groups and communities within the school health program:

- client advocacy
- collaborate with school staff, students and parents
- health and wellness advice and promotion
- health curriculum support
- infection prevention and control

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-6-4 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to provide client centered care to individuals, groups and communities within the school health program: (cont'd)

- knowledge of school health priorities and key resources
- response to emergency situations
- safety policies and procedures
- screening, education, referrals, follow-up
- immunization protocol and practices

T-6-5 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to communicate, consult and collaborate with inter-professional team.

Major Competency Area: T
Community Health

Competency: T-7
Clinic Nursing

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

- T-7-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to apply critical thinking and critical inquiry throughout the nursing process in clinic nursing.
- T-7-2 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to apply community and primary health principles in clinic setting.
- T-7-3 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to provide clinic nursing services including:
- treatment and interventions
 - chronic disease management
 - community rehabilitation
 - coordination, consultation, referral
 - disease prevention
 - healthy living and wellness
 - primary care services
 - immunization management
 - screening (cervical and breast cancer, sexually transmitted infections, allergy skin test)
- T-7-4 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to provide health teaching and coaching in the clinic setting.

Major Competency Area: T
Community Health

Competency: T-8
Case Management

Date: January 16, 2017

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-8-1 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to apply critical thinking and critical inquiry throughout the nursing process related to case management.

T-8-2 Demonstrate knowledge of case management principles and processes in relation to Licensed Practical Nurse scope of practice.

T-8-3 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to model evidence informed client centered care to client, family, inter-professional team and care agencies.

T-8-4 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to perform advanced responsibilities of case manager specific to management of client care including:

- assess client data to determine service needs
- complete client care profile
- negotiate client placement
- communicate with client, family, placement site
- monitor client needs while waiting placement
- facilitate smooth transition of client into continuing care placement
 - collaborate with transition team
- facilitate completion of admission assessment and documentation as required including:
 - ongoing holistic assessment and monitoring
 - special assessments
 - Resident Assessment Instrument (InterRAI)
 - other assessments as appropriate
 - personal directives
 - power of attorney
 - guardianship/trusteeship
 - goals of care
 - medication reconciliation/medication assistance
- develop plan of care/goals of care in collaboration

A Licensed Practical Nurse will:

T-8-4 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to perform advanced responsibilities of case manager specific to management of client care including: (cont'd)

- perform regular and ongoing reviews and assessments
- identify and address unmet client needs
- facilitate ongoing communication and support
- liaison with acute care if client transferred for episodic illness or injury
- ongoing reassessment of plan of care/goals of care

T-8-5 Demonstrate knowledge of and accountability in the advanced case manager role including:

- demonstrate effective time management
- manage multiple priorities and issues
- care management and client advocacy
- facilitate client health teaching and coaching
- ensure ongoing accuracy of client health record
- collaborate with inter-professional team
- collaborate with continuing care agencies and community resources
- facilitate open and timely communication
- organize and leads case conferences
- integrate best practices throughout care
- deliver education as appropriate
- manage complex situations
- mediate and manages conflict
- identify issues and barriers in continuum of care
- implement clinical judgment to guide problem solving
- demonstrate continual leadership development
- manage resources effectively

T-8-6 Demonstrate knowledge and ability to communicate, consult and collaborate with inter-professional team.